

LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

Graduate assistants may request up to four weeks of leave without pay per semester and one week of leave without pay per summer session for illness of a close family member, death in the immediate family, or personal illness or hardship. If leave without pay is not approved by the supervisor of the graduate assistantship, the graduate assistant may petition the Dean of the Graduate School for approval.