

ADDING A COURSE

Students who have received a tuition remission and/or in-state tuition award that is less than nine (9) credit hours and registers for more than the amount awarded may contact their Graduate Program Director to see if funds are available to cover the additional costs. If funds are not available, the student will be billed and is responsible for paying for the additional credits.