

FEES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

University fees support non-academic services for students. The University works to keep fees competitive with peer institutions and only charges students what is defensible in covering costs associated with the services provided. For a list of required fees for graduate students, see the Cashier's and Student Accounts Office (<https://csh.uncg.edu/>). All graduate students are responsible for paying student fees.