

ANCIENT MEDITERRANEAN STUDIES SECOND ACADEMIC CONCENTRATION

Ancient Mediterranean Studies Second Academic Concentration for Elementary Education with K–6 Teacher Licensure, B.S.

This concentration is designed for students in the Elementary Education and Special Education programs. Much of the subject matter in the concentration (mythology, language and reading study, word origins, history, and culture) is easily adaptable for use with elementary grades students, and the flexibility of the concentration is designed to accommodate the schedules of Elementary Education and Special Education majors.

Requirements

- Minimum of 18 credit hours.

Latin Focus

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		9-12
AMS 101	The Romans
AMS 205	Greek Mythology
Select one of the following courses/sequences:
LAT 101 & LAT 102	Elementary Latin I and Elementary Latin II
LAT 140	Elementary Latin Review *
Civilization Courses		6-9
Select 6-9 credits from the following:
AMS 212	Introduction to Roman Archaeology
AMS 223	Classical Tragedy
AMS 224	Classical Comedy
AMS 314	Ancient Cities
AMS 332	Comparative Studies in World Epics
AMS 333	Comparative Studies in World Drama
AMS 340	Ancient Cosmology
AMS 350	Love, Life, and the Law in Ancient Rome
AMS 407	Roman Myth and Legend

* By placement exam or permission of the instructor

Greek Focus

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		12
GRK 101	Elementary Ancient Greek I
GRK 102	Elementary Ancient Greek II
AMS 100	The Greeks
AMS 205	Greek Mythology
Civilization Courses		6

AMS 211 Introduction to Greek Archaeology

AMS 223 Classical Tragedy

Select 6 credits from the following:

AMS 224 Classical Comedy

AMS 314 Ancient Cities

AMS 323 The World of Alexander the Great

AMS 332 Comparative Studies in World Epics

AMS 333 Comparative Studies in World Drama

AMS 340 Ancient Cosmology

AMS 407 Roman Myth and Legend

Ancient Mediterranean Studies Second Academic Concentration for Special Education: General Curriculum, B.S.

This concentration is designed for students in the Elementary Education and Special Education programs. Much of the subject matter in the concentration (mythology, language and reading study, word origins, history, and culture) is easily adaptable for use with elementary grades students, and the flexibility of the concentration is designed to accommodate the schedules of Elementary Education and Special Education majors.

Requirements

- Minimum of 18 credit hours

Latin Focus

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		9-12
AMS 101	The Romans
AMS 205	Greek Mythology
Select one of the following courses/sequences:
LAT 101 & LAT 102	Elementary Latin I and Elementary Latin II
LAT 140	Elementary Latin Review *
Civilization Courses		6-9
Select 6-9 credits from the following:
AMS 212	Introduction to Roman Archaeology
AMS 223	Classical Tragedy
AMS 224	Classical Comedy
AMS 314	Ancient Cities
AMS 332	Comparative Studies in World Epics
AMS 332	Comparative Studies in World Epics
AMS 333	Comparative Studies in World Drama
AMS 340	Ancient Cosmology
AMS 350	Love, Life, and the Law in Ancient Rome
AMS 407	Roman Myth and Legend

* By placement exam or permission of the instructor

Greek Focus

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required		12
GRK 101	Elementary Ancient Greek I
GRK 102	Elementary Ancient Greek II
AMS 100	The Greeks
AMS 205	Greek Mythology
Civilization Courses		6
Select 6 credits from the following:
AMS 211	Introduction to Greek Archaeology
AMS 223	Classical Tragedy
AMS 224	Classical Comedy
AMS 314	Ancient Cities
AMS 323	The World of Alexander the Great
AMS 332	Comparative Studies in World Epics
AMS 333	Comparative Studies in World Drama
AMS 340	Ancient Cosmology
AMS 407	Roman Myth and Legend	