CST Electives

In addition to the 18 credit hours for the required core courses, CST majors need to satisfactorily complete 18 credits in CST electives. It is recommended that the students choose courses from across the following categories in CST. The focus areas are designed to help students devise a coherent set of courses, in line with our departmental emphasis on communication as personal, professional, and public. Students are free to select courses within a specific theme or choose courses across the focus areas.

Accelerated B.A. to M.A. in Communications Studies

Application and Admission

Qualified UNC Greensboro undergraduate students may be nominated to participate in the Accelerated Master's Program (AMP) in Communication Studies by the Graduate Program Director. Students must have completed a minimum of 60 credit hours with at least 30 credits and a cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least 3.5 at UNC Greensboro.

Communication Studies has the following additional requirements:

At least 15 credits of undergraduate Communication Studies courses, with an earned 3.5 GPA in these courses. The 15 credits must include CST 298 Communication Inquiry or CST 310 Communicating Ethically with a minimum grade of B. Of the remaining 12 credits, 6 credits must be from among CST 105 Introduction to Communication Studies, CST 200 Communication and Community, CST 207 Interpersonal Communication, and CST 208 Organizational Communication. Students must be scheduled to complete these courses by their time of admission, and they need not be completed by the time of their application.

Courses

Admitted students may apply a maximum of 12 credits of graduate-level course work toward completion of both the undergraduate and graduate degrees, provided that they earn a grade of B (3.0) or better in each graduate course and fulfill graduate-level requirements.

As with all graduate students in Communication Studies, courses counted toward the M.A. degree need the prior approval of the Graduate Program Director. Up to, but not more than, 12 credits of graduate courses may be double-counted. For a course to apply toward both degrees, the student must earn a grade of B (3.0) or better in the course and fulfill graduate-level requirements.

The M.A. degree requires 30 credit hours of graduate-level course work. If the maximum of 12 credits is double-counted toward both the undergraduate and graduate degrees, the student must complete an additional 18 credits of graduate-level course work to complete the M.A. degree. Please see the section below for a full description of the M.A. degree requirements. The following courses have been identified as those that may be counted toward the B.A. and M.A. degrees. These courses have been chosen because they are well suited to AMP students and because they are offered frequently enough to provide students substantial opportunity to enroll in them. All courses that lead to the completion of the M.A. degree must be approved with the Graduate Program Director.

The following courses may be counted toward the bachelor's and the master's degrees:

Code	Title	Credit Hours
CST 601	Engaging Communication Scholarship I	3
CST 602	Engaging Communication Scholarship II	3
CST 603	Instructional Communication	3
CST 605	Communicating for Social Change	3

CST 630	Communication, Organization, and Democracy	3
CST 663	Seminar in Relational Communication	3

Substitutions for the above courses require the permission of the Graduate Program Director in the Department of Communication Studies.

Please consult with an advisor to determine how the courses taken at the graduate level will meet requirements in the bachelor's degree program. All degree requirements for the M.A. in Communication Studies remain the same.
